NIKOLA TESLA AND THE BRACELET OF RESONANCE

The Mystery Behind the Leather Bracelet

Nikola Tesla (1856–1943) was a visionary who, alongside revolutionizing the field of electrical energy, explored the invisible forces of the universe — resonance, frequency, and scalar waves. His research inspired the development of HSC Tesla scalar technology, from which Syn(c)Energy wristbands emerged, designed to harmonize the body and mind through modern biofrequency principles.

It is little known that, in addition to his pioneering research in electrical energy, electromagnetism, and magnetic fields, Tesla had a deep personal aspiration: to find a way to extend human life through knowledge of applied physics and preserve human vitality.

"IF YOU WANT TO FIND THE SECRETS OF THE UNIVERSE, THINK IN TERMS OF ENERGY, FREQUENCY, AND VIBRATION."

Tesla believed that energy is everywhere around us and that it can be directed to achieve inner clarity, balance — and even the preservation of life.

Nikola Tesla and the Secret Leather Bracelet

A little-known yet deeply intriguing story follows Nikola Tesla through his later years. Alongside his notebooks — filled with ideas, projects, and unfinished patents — Tesla always wore the same simple leather bracelet, threaded through a small metal plate. On the outer side of the plate were engraved the initials "N.T.", while the inner side rested directly against his skin.

This bracelet was not a fashion accessory. For Tesla, it was a resonant key — a personal tool for silence and connection. He claimed that his clearest messages came through it — visions, sketches, and ideas sent by what he called "teachers from higher levels of consciousness". In his dreams, he received blueprints of machines, formulas, and concepts, and the bracelet, as he said, "tuned the signal". Some believed it allowed him subtle communication with realms beyond the known — spaces where ideas exist before they become reality.

A World of Noise – An Invisible Ocean of Signals

Today, in a world overwhelmed by electromagnetic radiation, digital noise, and information stress — from Wi-Fi networks, smart devices, Bluetooth signals, and 5G antennas to the invisible emissions of household appliances — such a bracelet is no longer just a fascinating relic of the past. It has become a personal necessity for the modern human being.

Wherever we go, even within our own homes, we exist in an invisible ocean of signals and frequencies that influence our body, mind, and energy.

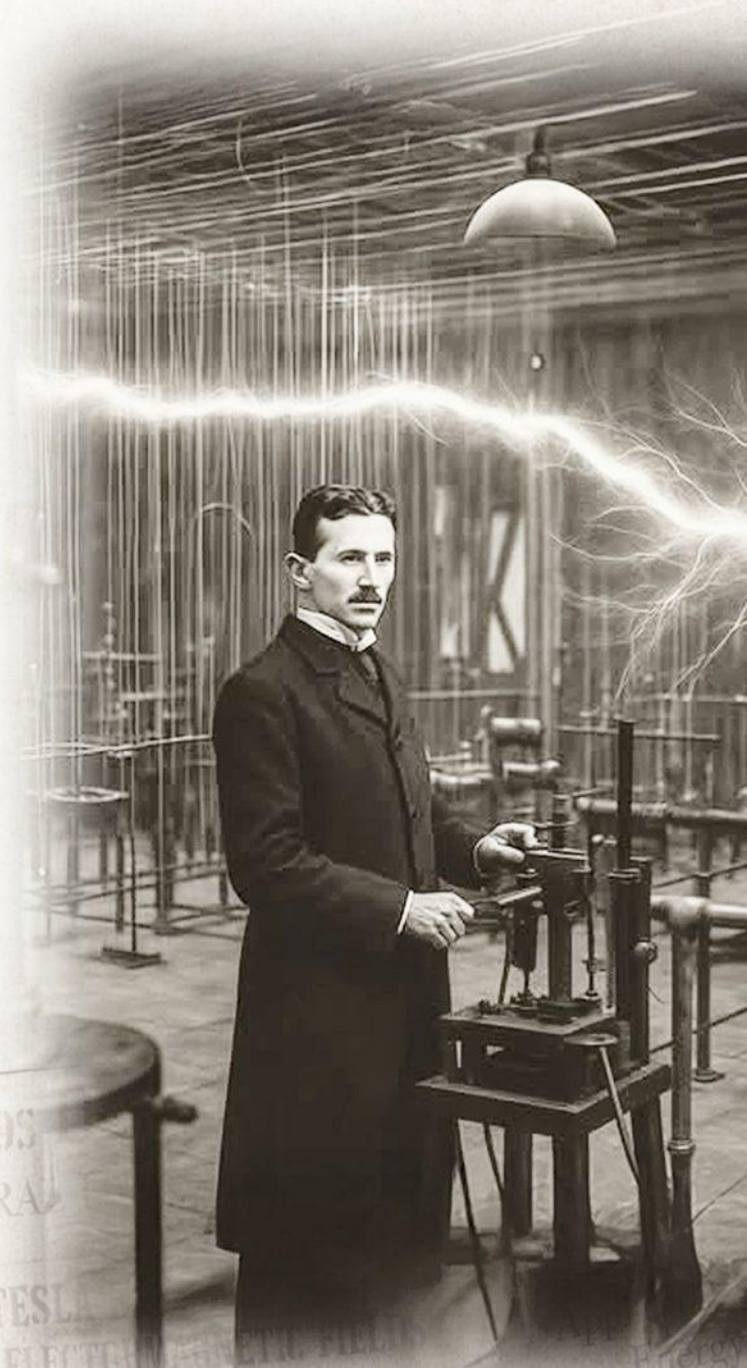

Natural and Artificial Frequencies

But technology is not the only thing that vibrates. All living beings — humans, animals, plants — as well as nature itself: rivers, seas, forests, and even wind — possess their own unique frequencies. Many of these natural frequencies have a beneficial effect on our inner frequency, helping us realign, calm down, and return to balance.

HUMAN BEINGS VIBRATE. EVERY PERSON HAS THEIR OWN INNER FREQUENCY — A UNIQUE ENERGETIC SIGNATURE. MOREOVER, EVERY INDIVIDUAL ORGAN IN THE HUMAN BODY HAS ITS OWN FREQUENCY: THE HEART, BRAIN, LIVER, LUNGS...

When an external frequency collides with our inner frequency, interference occurs. If this interference is negative — caused by artificial, technical, or intense radiation — our organs lose their rhythm, do not function properly, fail to perform their natural roles, may begin to fail, and in the worst case, if exposed for long periods to such strong environmental radiation, cells can ultimately die.

On the other hand, there are positive interferences — for example, when a person spends time in nature and is exposed to a wide range of natural frequencies that beneficially influence their inner frequency and the frequencies of their organs: the sound of birds chirping, the murmur of rivers, ocean waves, wind through tree canopies... In such moments, the body naturally realigns with nature's rhythms, and the organs vibrate more harmoniously.

Syn(c)Energy BioHarmonizer – A Modern Reinterpretation - The Modern Echo of Tesla's Bracelet

From this inspiration emerged the Syn(c)Energy BioHarmonizer — a modern reinterpretation of Tesla's bracelet. Made from advanced, hypoallergenic, and eco-friendly materials, and equipped with an integrated biofrequency module based on HSC Tesla scalar technology, this wristband helps the wearer ground, protect, and reconnect with themselves.

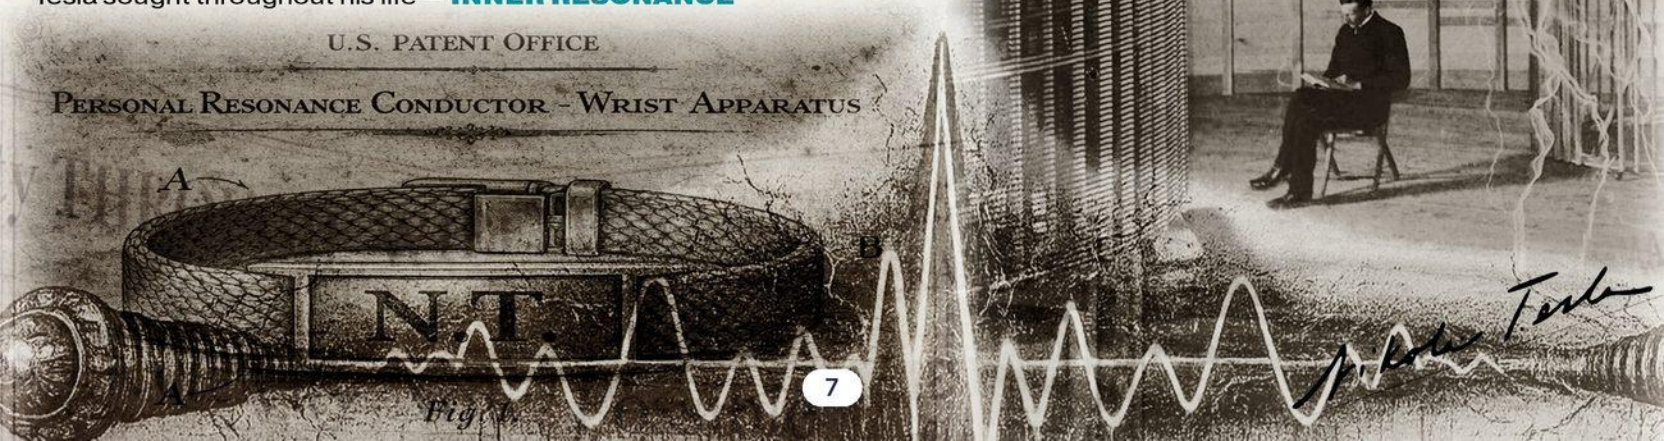

Tesla Designed It for Himself – Syn(c)Energy Brings It to the World

The Syn(c)Energy wristband reduces, quiets, and neutralizes harmful electronically generated frequencies from the environment, transforming their influence into beneficial information for the wearer's organism — in the same way as the HSC card. In doing so, it protects and isolates the wearer's inner frequency from harmful external influences while simultaneously enhancing the impact of positive, natural vibrations from the surrounding environment — those originating from plants, water, air, and living organisms.

Its design unites scientific heritage and modern technology, intuitive wisdom and frequency precision.

TESLA KNEW THAT TRUE CLARITY ARISES WHEN THE MIND BECOMES QUIET AND CONSCIOUSNESS ALIGNS WITH ITS OWN INNER FREQUENCY – BECAUSE RESONANCE IS NOT MERELY A CONCEPT FROM PHYSICS, BUT A STATE IN WHICH A HUMAN BEING VIBRATES IN HARMONY WITH THEMSELVES AND THE WORLD AROUND THEM.

Today, in a world of noise, Syn(c)Energy restores access to what Tesla sought throughout his life — INNER RESONANCE

AND NOW

Syn(c)Energy BioHarmonizer

Smart Band

The Teslass Syn(c)Energy Smart Band is designed to help people of all ages – both children and adults – cope with the challenges of modern life. We face stress, fatigue, sleep disorders, and harmful electromagnetic radiation (EMF) from electronic devices on a daily basis. The Syn(c)Energy Smart Band uses advanced HSC technology and scalar metal programming to balance the user's body energy and provide protection from negative/harmful environmental influences.

The Smart Band generates and emits positive frequencies stored through the scalar programming process, thereby simultaneously harmonizing the user's biological system with environmental frequencies. Syn(c)Energy actively protects the user from harmful electromagnetic radiation and other negative energetic influences from the environment, transforming them into positive energy that further strengthens the body and resilience. The Smart Band synchronizes and creates harmony between the body's energy and environmental frequencies, ensuring that the user's energy is aligned with the surrounding energy, creating a balanced and harmonious energy flow between the wearer and their environment.

Syn(c)Energy continuously adapts its function to the user's energy needs, providing long-term support and protection. The user feels rejuvenated, protected, and balanced at all times, with a sense of complete harmony and a balanced life. The Smart Band offers a comprehensive solution for protection from environmental EM radiation, energy balance, and health improvement, making it ideal for anyone looking to live healthier, with less stress and better concentration.

Key Benefits

- Protection from Electromagnetic Radiation (EMF): Neutralizes harmful radiation and transforms it into positive energy that rejuvenates and revitalizes the body.
- Energy Balance: The synergistic effect aligns your personal energy with your environment, improving physical and mental balance.
- Support for Concentration and Learning: Helps with focus and memory, making it useful for children in school and adults at work.
- Support for Individuals with ADHD: Helps calm hyperactivity, improve concentration and focus, and ensures emotional stability.
- Better Sleep: Promotes a healthier sleep rhythm. EMF radiation disrupts melatonin production, a hormone crucial for good sleep. Syn(c)Energy improves sleep quality and helps establish a healthier sleep cycle, allowing the person to wake up feeling more rested.
- Stress Reduction: Calms and provides emotional stability in everyday challenges.
- While Traveling: Maintains energy levels and reduces symptoms of fatigue and discomfort, especially during long trips. Helps the body adapt more quickly to time zones and reduces symptoms of jet lag, making it easier to adjust to new environments.

Benefits for Children

- At School: Helps children focus better, reduces anxiety, and improves memory retention. It helps children feel calmer and more confident in themselves and their knowledge before exams and tests.
- During Sports Activities: Increases endurance, speeds up recovery, and helps children stay calm and focused during competitions.
- At Home: Improves sleep quality and reduces hyperactivity, creating a calmer atmosphere.
- While Traveling: Maintains energy levels and reduces symptoms of fatigue, especially during long trips.
- For Children with Pronounced ADHD: Helps in managing attention deficit and hyperactivity disorder, improving focus and concentration, calming hyperactivity, and ensuring emotional stability in stressful situations.

Syn(c)Energy BioHarmonizer

For everyone. For every day.

The Syn(c)Energy BioHarmonizer is designed for different generations and lifestyles, with one goal: to support personal balance, vitality and a better quality of everyday life. Every group has different needs – and Syn(c)Energy fits into their activities as a simple accessory focused on well-being and building positive habits.

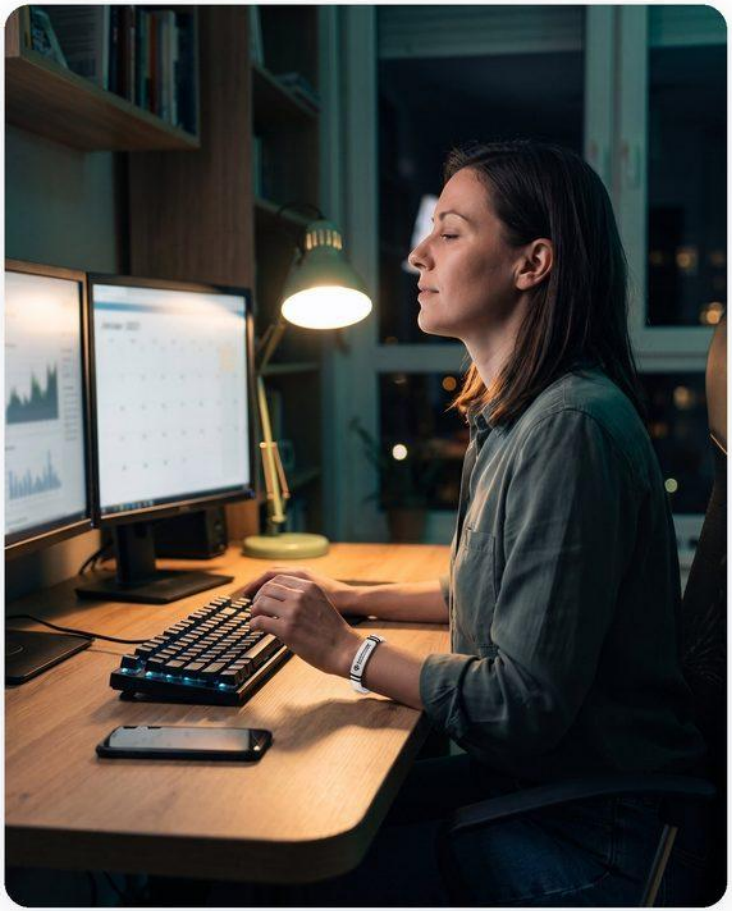

Children

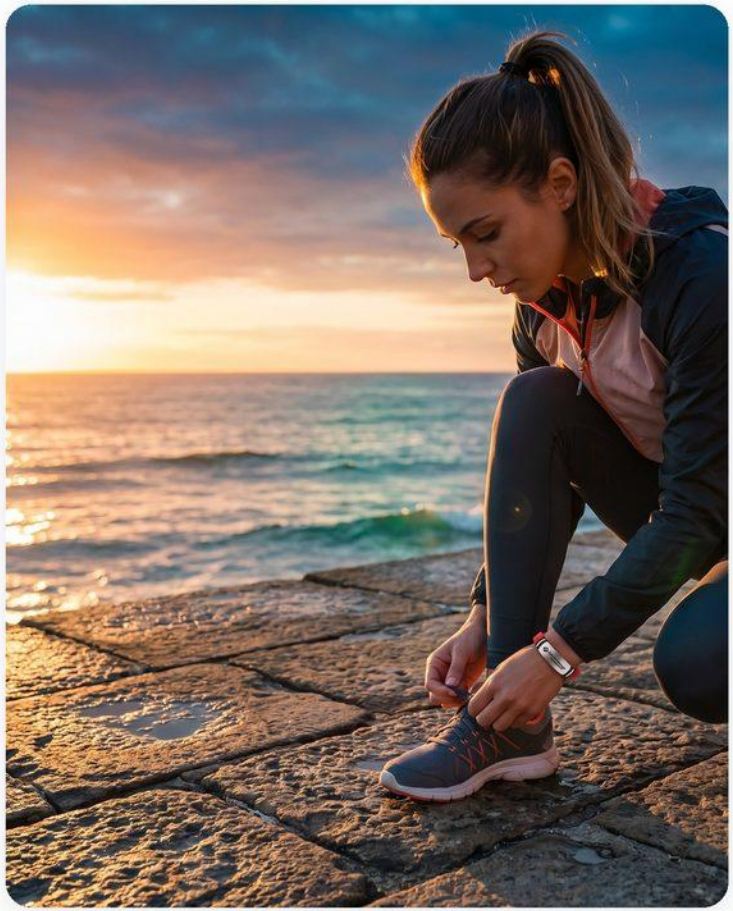

Children face a constant stream of stimuli, school duties and digital devices that can affect their daily rhythm. The Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on building a routine that balances learning, play and rest. It helps parents encourage healthier habits and a more mindful attitude in children towards their own well-being.

Young people & students

Intense studying, exams, social life and digital content bring everyday challenges for young people. Used as part of a personal routine, the Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on building more organised habits, regular breaks and a more balanced daily rhythm. It accompanies young people through their education, personal growth and everyday goals.

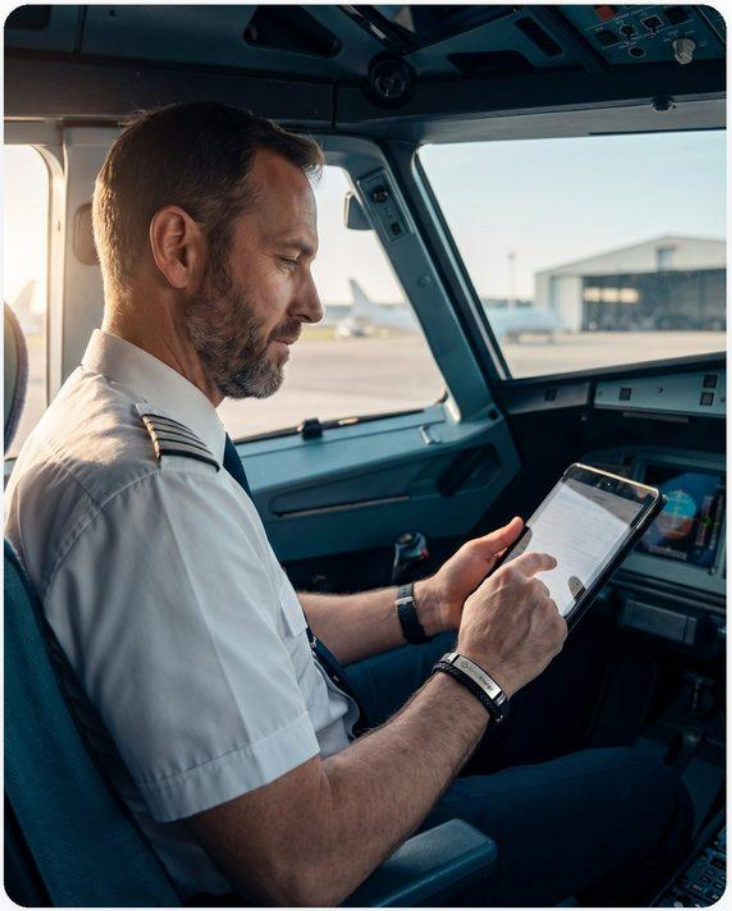

Digital users

Gamers, streamers, developers and content creators spend long hours in front of screens, often sitting for hours and doing intense mental work. The Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on awareness of the importance of rest and of balance between screen time and physical movement. It helps users build the habit of regular breaks and a more responsible attitude towards their own needs.

Sport & recreation

Athletes and active people constantly balance physical effort, training, rest and nutrition. The Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on keeping a mindful approach to an active lifestyle, encouraging regular hydration, quality rest and consistent habits. It is made for everyone who wants to nurture vitality, personal balance and a long-term commitment to movement.

Everyday balance

Work, family and countless obligations often leave little time for your own needs. The Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on everyday habits, reminding you of the importance of rest, movement and personal well-being. As part of your daily routine, it helps you pay more attention to the balance between responsibilities and time for yourself.

Professionals

Entrepreneurs, teachers, office workers, drivers and pilots work every day in demanding conditions that call for responsibility and organisation. The Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on awareness of the importance of rest and a balanced rhythm of life. It is a practical accessory for professionals who want better habits and harmony between work and private life.

Focus & organisation

Constant information, interruptions and countless obligations can make it hard to keep a clear schedule and priorities. Used as a personal reminder to plan, rest and finish tasks, the Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on building more organised routines. It is made for people who want consistency, a more mindful approach to obligations and a more balanced daily rhythm.

Travellers

Long journeys, changing schedules and irregular meals can disrupt the everyday habits of children and adults alike. The Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on keeping personal routines while travelling, reminding you to stay hydrated, rest and move. It becomes a practical companion for business travellers, tourists and families who want to travel more comfortably and in a more organised way.

Nutrition & habits

Irregular meals, fast food and a hectic lifestyle can make a balanced diet hard to maintain. Linked to your personal goals, the Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on developing a more mindful relationship with eating habits. It reminds children and adults of the importance of regular meals, hydration and better everyday choices.

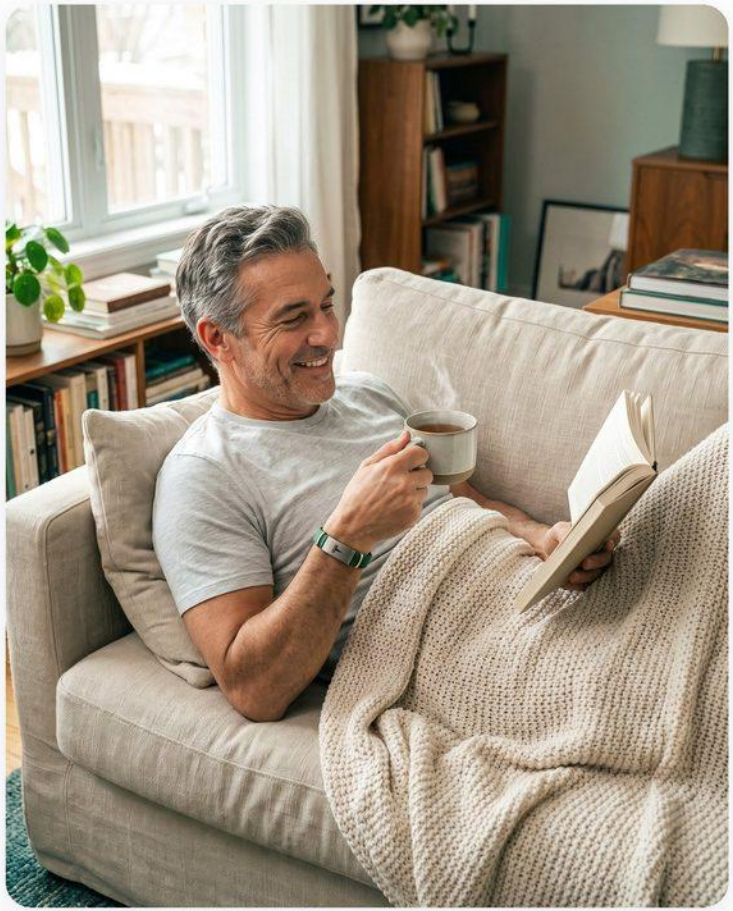

Mums-to-be & mums

Pregnancy and motherhood bring changes to the daily rhythm, new responsibilities and a greater need for rest. The Syn(c)Energy bracelet is designed as a personal symbol of self-care that has a positive effect on recognising your own needs. It encourages a routine focused on rest, good nutrition and better organisation of everyday life.

Women in midlife

Perimenopause, menopause and later stages of life bring changes to the daily rhythm and to personal needs. As part of an everyday routine, the Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on nurturing a more mindful relationship with your own well-being. It is made for women who want to keep an active lifestyle, vitality and balance through life's natural changes.

People in recovery

Recovering from illness, injury or a demanding period of life takes patience, rest and a gradual return to everyday activities. As a personal symbol of a new beginning, the Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on the motivation to keep up helpful habits. It reminds you of the importance of rest, nutrition and a responsible attitude towards your own needs during recovery.

Seniors

Later life often brings changes in mobility, joints, bones and skin, which makes personal well-being especially important. The Syn(c)Energy bracelet has a positive effect on awareness of healthier habits and an active approach to ageing. It encourages regular movement, rest and self-care, supporting older people in maintaining a better quality of everyday life.

As a gift

Looking for a gift that means something? The Syn(c)Energy bracelet is a personal present for a birthday, an anniversary, the holidays or simply to show you care. Elegantly packaged and available in many colours and styles, it reminds the people you love to make time for themselves. Give the gift of rhythm.

Who is SYNC?

THE HEART, ENERGY AND VALUES BEHIND THE SYN(C)ENERGY MASCOT

- Symbol of Balance and Natural Harmony
  Sync is the official mascot of the Syn(c)Energy brand and a symbol of balance between modern technology and the natural rhythm of the human body. He represents the idea that our energy functions best when we stay active, use technology in moderation, and spend meaningful time in nature.
- Guided by the Power of HSC Technology
  Syn(c)Energy creates a healthy synergy with natural frequencies and helps synchronize external, disruptive technological frequencies with the rhythm of your body — adapting them so they beneficially support the organism instead of harming it, thanks to the use of HSC technology.
- Promoting Movement, Play, and Healthy Habits
  Sync encourages children and adults to move, play, train, and develop healthy routines, while reminding everyone that the digital world should remain a tool rather than a replacement for real life.
- Supporting Sports and Community Growth
  Through Sync, the brand promotes harmony between body, mind, and technology, and actively supports sports activities, children's events, and community projects that inspire a healthy, balanced lifestyle.
- The Friendly Voice of Syn(c)Energy
  Sync motivates, inspires, and uplifts with the message that true energy emerges when we are in sync — with nature, with movement, and with ourselves.

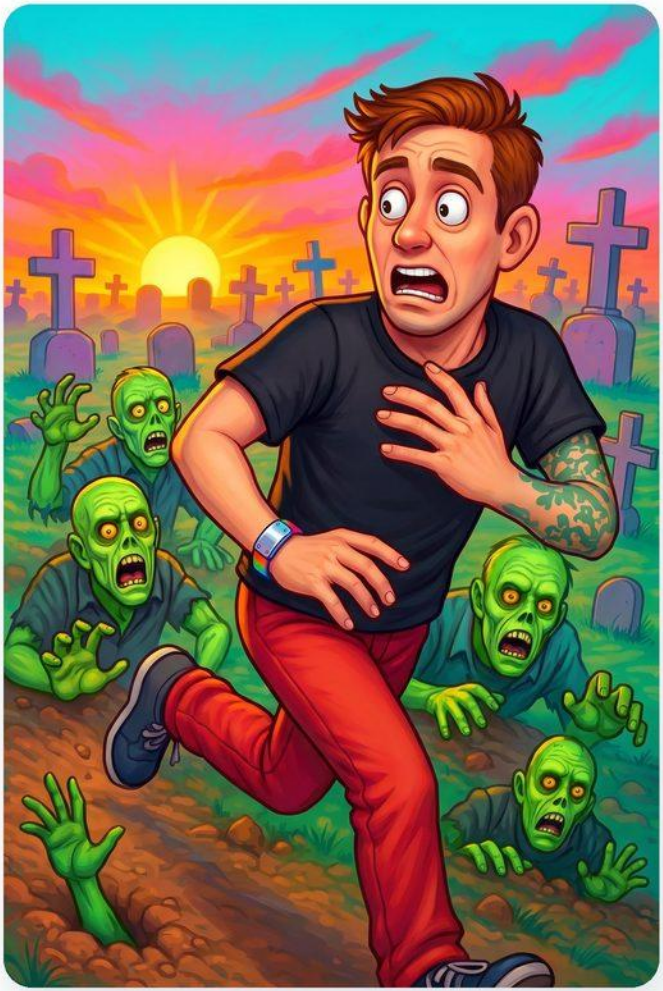

The perfect gift for someone special.

Every bracelet comes in an elegant box – ready for a birthday, an anniversary, or just because someone matters.
